SHARE THE RICHNESS OF THE DIVERSITY AMONG US!

Explore your own experiences and learn about the experiences of others in a supportive, non-confrontational environment. Unlearn the out-of-date stereotypes that still affect our words and behavior so that we can all share the richness of the diversity in our community. Series goals:

- To educate the mind with new facts and research about types of racism
- To examine life experiences and share from your heart
- To build relationships with other groups so we can support each other's efforts to accept others without prejudice

Let's build relationships with our neighbors and other groups, so that we can enhance the vibrancy of our community!
